

PRESS RELEASE

WOLF THEISS HAS NEW PARTNER FOR COMPETITION LAW

Vienna/Bucharest, 21 April 2016 – Wolf Theiss Rechtsanwälte GmbH & Co KG SCA recruits new Partner Adrian Şter in 2016

This year, the Romanian office of Austrian law firm Wolf Theiss expands its competition and state aid practice by adding new Partner Adrian Şter to its team.

Adrian Şter has practiced competition law for more than 10 years. He graduated from the Faculty of Law of Babeş-Bolyai University, Cluj-Napoca in 2003, and, in 2005, from the School of Law, Nottingham University, UK. In 2006 he received his Master's degree "with Merit" in European Law from University College London.

Adrian's vast experience in the legal field includes assisting leading players on the local market from telecommunication, FMCG, retail, banking, pharma, energy, automotive and media such as Roche Romania, Eli Lilly, Servier, GDF Suez, ENEL Romania, Sig Sauer, Electrolux, Intact Media Group, BV McCann Erickson, Discovery Europe, Opel Southeast Europe, Unilever Romania etc.

"I am thrilled to join a leading law firm such as Wolf Theiss and an exceptional team of professionals, with a remarkable experience that has already become a benchmark for quality legal services in Central and South-East Europe. I am keen on actively contributing to the expansion of the Wolf Theiss competition and state aid practice, using my professional experience to ensure that we are one of the go-to choices in legal services in this field and in related sectors.", said Adrian Şter, Wolf Theiss Partner and head of Competition and State Aid Practice.

Günter Bauer, Head of the practice group Competition & Antitrust at Wolf Theiss: "We are delighted to have Adrian Şter on board. Our practice group continues growing and Adrian helps further strengthening it in the region."
