ANDREAS THEISS AWARDED GOLDEN MEDAL OF HONOUR FOR SERVICE TO THE PROVINCE OF VIENNA

Vienna, 20 February 2017 – Andreas Theiss, Founding Partner of Wolf Theiss, received the Golden Medal of Honour for Service to the Province of Vienna (das Goldene Ehrenzeichen für Verdienste um das Land Wien).

Executive City Councillor for Education, Integration, Youth and Personnel Jürgen Czernohorszky represented the Mayor of Vienna, Michael Häupl, and officiated at the presentation of the award. Ferdinand Maier, former Secretary General of the Austrian Raiffeisenverband and Delegate to the Austrian Parliament, then held a speech in honour of Andreas Theiss. He cited his many contributions of economic and social significance to the city.

"Andreas Theiss is known for his affinity for innovation and his generosity. He draws strength from his optimism, and was able to anticipate very early on the potential in the East as it was opening up," said Erik Steger, Managing Partner at Wolf Theiss. "He challenges us, his partners, never to stop developing ourselves, even today. An unbelievably large network provides him with support in his endeavours, and those of us who work with him appreciate him for his sympathetic ear."

Theiss is primarily involved in the strategic advising of companies and the management of international projects.
