Erik Steger, Managing Partner of Wolf Theiss, said of the award, "In its decision, Chambers paid special attention to our commitment to the CEE region and to our exceptional achievements across a broad range of sectors and jurisdictions. This award recognises our international work and its embodiment in numerous prominent transactions in CEE."

The renowned Chambers Awards recognise outstanding achievements by law firms and are conferred by the world's leading publisher in the legal sector. They are among the most important international awards for law firms and lawyers. The independent jury bases its decision on remarkable successes, such as exceptional transactions, strategic growth and outstanding client services, which law firms achieve over the course of twelve months.
