WOLF THEISS CONTINUES ITS EXPANSION IN CEE: LANA SARAJILIC JOINS WOLF THEISS SARAJEVO

Vienna/Sarajevo, 15. November 2017 - After hiring new partners in Poland and Romania, Wolf Theiss continues its expansion course in Bosnia. Lana Sarajlić, an independent Attorney at Law based in Sarajevo, will strengthen the Bosnian part of the Wolf Theiss regional GDPR initiative and take care of corporate and commercial law projects.

In response to the growing demand for legal advisory services in CEE Wolf Theiss has continued its rapid expansion in this area. After hiring 3 new partners in Poland and one new partner in Bucharest in autumn 2017 a further next step has now been taken in Sarajevo.

Building on the success in Bosnia in the previous two years, Wolf Theiss now welcomes Lana Sarajlić back to the Sarajevo team. Lana cooperated with Wolf Theiss from 2010 to the end of 2013 and then left to work in cooperation with Nikolić & Karanović as an independent Attorney at Law. At Nikolić & Karanović, Lana Sarajlić became a lead lawyer heading large transactions.

"It is a great pleasure to cooperate again with Wolf Theiss, a firm recognized for its excellent reputation and quality. I am excited about returning and strongly believe that our renewed cooperation will further enhance the strong practice and strengthen Wolf Theiss' leading position in Bosnia", explains Lana Sarajlić.

"We are very glad to have Lana back as one of the leading lawyers in Bosnia. She is a strong reinforcement to our strong local and international practice ", explains Nikolaus Paul, Managing Partner Wolf Theiss. "Given her outstanding experience, Lana will not only further grow our transactional practice but will also contribute to our regional Data Privacy Task Force".

The Wolf Theiss Cross-Border Data Privacy Task Force is comprised of experienced legal and IT professionals who have specific experience in providing integrated solutions to our clients in swiftly developing areas of law such as GDPR, anti-money Laundering, compliance, data and cyber security. We work across all industry and business sectors that are impacted by the tremendous changes and challenges that have been introduced by the technological innovations of the digital age.
