

Rhenus acquires Croatian logistics provider Trans Integral with legal assistance from Wolf Theiss

Zagreb, 23 May 2023 – Wolf Theiss advised Germany-based leading logistics specialist the Rhenus Group on the acquisition of Croatian logistics provider Trans Integral d.o.o. This strategic acquisition enables the Rhenus Group to further expand its presence in the Balkan region.

The Wolf Theiss Zagreb Corporate/M&A team, led by Partner Dora Gaži Kovačević, supported primarily by Associate Berislav Drašković, provided legal assistance to the Rhenus Group on this important acquisition. Their mandate included participation in the negotiations process and preparation of the transaction documentation.

This is now the second time that the Rhenus Group has relied on legal advice from the Wolf Theiss Zagreb team that previously supported the logistics company in the successful integration of Log Adria d.o.o. two years ago.

Partner Dora Gaži Kovačević describes the collaboration with the client as smooth, efficient and well-structured.

The Rhenus Group and Trans Integral have a long history of cooperation prior to the current acquisition and have overlapping locations in Zagreb, Rijeka and Ploče. This deal allows both companies to perform complementary activities out of these locations and grants Rhenus the opportunity to foray into Bosnia and Herzegovina.

According to the Rhenus Group, this deal further offers its company and customers the opportunity to benefit from additional resources and expertise, including a modern state-of-the-art truck fleet owned and operated by Trans Integral.
