About

Przemek Kozdój is one of the leading Polish finance lawyers with more than 20 years of professional experience. He has worked in international law firms in Poland, the UK and the Czech Republic as well as in a financial institution in Germany. He heads Wolf Theiss' Banking and Finance practice in Poland, ranked by Chambers and Partners. His experience extends to a broad range of finance-related matters. He is well-known for his achievements in real estate finance, where he advised investors and banks in numerous complex transactions. He advised on a takeover of a leading financial institution, where he managed crucial financial aspects of the transaction such as the multi-billion, multi-currency credit line providing back-up financing for a mortgage loans portfolio. He has also counselled on transferring an enterprise of a bank to a branch of its holding company, as well as financial restructuring of Polish companies, with subsidiaries in several jurisdictions.

Przemek is ranked in international legal directories. Przemek graduated summa cum laude from the University of Warsaw. He speaks English and German fluently.

Law done right.
