Smart people working on challenging projects for inspiring clients

Local focus on a global scale.

Chambers & Partners commended us for our “particular strength in cross-border mandates in the CEE and SEE regions”. Others agreed, such as The Lawyer naming us “Law firm of the Year” for Central Europe and for South Eastern Europe multiple times. It’s a reputation we’ve taken over 65 years to build.

Since starting out in Vienna, we have grown into the largest fully integrated firm in Central, Eastern and Southeastern Europe (CEE and SEE). Our team now brings together over 400 lawyers, working across numerous practice areas in 13 CEE/SEE countries. During that time, we have worked on numerous cases that have broken new ground.

Local knowledge

We focus on a unique part of the world: the complex and dynamic markets of the CEE and SEE regions. With our specialised knowledge and local office network, we support our clients in mastering complex business challenges and creating new opportunities.

In addition to our offices in 13 countries and a central European hub in Brussels, we have regional desks covering Kosovo, Montenegro and North Macedonia. Our desks focus on smaller jurisdictions and help us to serve your needs. This allows us to provide seamless legal services across the region, ensuring coordinated advice in multiple jurisdictions.

International experience

We offer our clients a wealth of knowledge and expertise in the following areas:

- Arbitration
- Artificial Intelligence
- Asset Recovery
- Banking & Finance
- Blockchain & Crypto Assets
- Capital Markets
- Competition & Antitrust
- Corporate / M&A
- Data Protection & Cybersecurity
- Defence
- Employment
- Energy & Infrastructure
- Healthcare & Life Sciences
- Intellectual Property
- Insurance & Reinsurance
- Investigations & Compliance
- Litigation
- Private Equity & Venture Capital
- Public Procurement
- Regulatory & Administrative Law
- Restructuring & Insolvency
- Tax
- TMT
- White Collar Crime

A light gray map of Central and Eastern Europe serves as the background. Overlaid on the map are black rounded rectangular labels for various countries and regions. The labels are: 'One region one firm.' in the top left; 'Brussels' in the northwest; 'Poland' in the north; 'Ukraine' in the northeast; 'Czech Republic' in the north-central area; 'Slovak Republic' in the central area; 'Austria' in the west-central area; 'Hungary' in the east-central area; 'Slovenia' in the west; 'Croatia' in the south-west; 'Serbia' in the south-east; 'Bosnia & Herzegovina' in the south; 'Romania' in the east; 'Bulgaria' in the south-east; and 'Albania' in the south.

The Wolf Theiss region

Many law firms talk about having a presence in multiple countries. But that often means they simply have links to other firms in the region. We prefer to have a real presence on the ground. It leads to closer client relationships and a better working knowledge of regional jurisdictions.

What others say about us

‘We particularly appreciate their profound understanding of the commercial side of our business combined with their strong legal knowledge. Wolf Theiss generally provides a high level of solution-oriented service with quick response times. We also like the fact that Wolf Theiss works with a strong team of both partners and younger lawyers which means someone is always available’.

- The Legal 500

Clients appreciated a ‘high level of contact with partners’ and the firm’s presence in CEE once again proves to be a major draw, with market sources habitually agreeing that this is ‘the firm you would want to work with going abroad, they’re bigger and more experienced than others’.

- Chambers Global

The firm is commended on multiple occasions for its cross-border capabilities within CEE. One client shares: ‘A great advantage of Wolf Theiss is that, due to the locations of the firm, we receive legal advice in several jurisdictions from one source in most countries in CEE. We appreciate the international co-ordination of the firm. We have one point of contact in all matters’.

- Chambers Europe

‘The firm has a market leading position in CEE and could provide specific input on very short notice while handling multiple dependencies’.
