

PRIVATE CLIENTS

As regulations become more complex and life more international, also private individuals require increasingly complex advice. Our private client team helps you as a high-net-worth individual and your family to grow your business and wealth. We understand that every private client has individual needs, and we have the size and expertise to provide you with a full range of legal and tax-related services throughout the CEE/SEE region. Our clients are individuals, family offices, foundations, trusts and closely held businesses.

We advise you on civil law (family law, inheritance law), public law (citizenship, land transfer restrictions), tax law, real estate law and corporate law. We can assist in drafting your will, negotiate a prenuptial agreement or handle immigration and relocation issues. We offer comprehensive management of and advice on assets and investments in our region, particularly real properties, but also movable assets, such as executive aircrafts or yachts. We represent you in negotiations with tax authorities, in disputes over the restitution of property or assets, and before administrative, civil and criminal courts.
