

REGULATORY & ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

Economic regulatory requirements locally and across Europe are clearly increasing. What isn't always so clear is exactly how they will affect you. With our knowledge of regulations throughout CEE/SEE, we can best advise you on the regulatory frameworks that affect your business. But sometimes, just knowing the status quo is not enough; we strive to anticipate the compliance requirements of the future, so that you can react and plan accordingly.

You can rely on us for a variety of administrative law issues. Our expertise includes dealing with public and regulatory administrative authorities as well as courts on a local, national and international level. Apart from public law litigation, we can advise you in relation to public law issues (such as licensing and permitting) in various fields, ensuring your compliance not only with local or international law, but also with relevant industry standards.
